Revelation Counseling Center & Lutheran Military Support Group Partnership

Faith-Based Care

Revelation Counseling Center is dedicated to serving military members, veterans, and their families with comprehensive faith-based counseling and specialized trauma support services.

Military Support Services

Revelation Counseling Center provides specialized military counseling services with convenient access options. In-person appointments are available at our Rock Hill, SC and Charlotte, NC locations, with secure telehealth services offered throughout South Carolina, North Carolina, Minnesota, and Idaho.

Unified Mission

Together, RCC and LMSG strengthen spiritual and emotional care for military communities through compassionate, faith-driven counseling services that address both mental health and spiritual needs.

Aligned Values, Shared Purpose

LMSG's mission to share the Gospel and provide comprehensive support for military needs perfectly aligns with Revelation Counseling Center's trauma-informed, confidential counseling approach. This partnership ensures that service members and their families receive both professional mental health care and spiritual guidance.

Our collaborative approach recognizes that military life presents unique challenges requiring specialized understanding of deployment stress, family separation, and transition difficulties.
